

Turība University

Project final product

Project rationale (I)

- Introduction and application of innovative communication tools:
 - Comic strip exercises,
 - Games (Scrabble, Bingo, Monopoly, Taboo, Hangman, etc.) combined with intercultural games on the Internet and supplemented with relevant grammar tasks;
 - Intergenerational tools that stimulate creativity between young and adult learners;
 - Exchange of cooking recipes;
 - Board games blended with traditional activities (cooking, singing, dancing).

- Analysis of standardized examinations in the countries:
 - The comparison of examination requirements in each partner country for test papers based on language tasks;
 - The comparison of comprehensively defined test specifications and uniform marketing criteria.

- Project meetings:
 - Experience exchange;
 - 1-2 model lessons;
 - Support to job searching people.

- More and different ways out of unemployment crisis:
 - By improving language and communication skills;
 - A selection of schemes and materials for European language trainers as well as for different groups of learners;
 - A selection of best practices could be enclosed;
 - The improvement of validation in the learning and teaching activity in the field of adult education.

- Language learning in the country:
 - Formal and non-formal language education in every country;
 - Specifics of language learning for adults in every country;
 - Information on the standardized examinations in foreign languages in every country.

- Materials for language learning/teaching:
 - Every country provides a description of some materials that can be applied for teaching/learning foreign languages – focus on innovative materials blended with traditional approach;
 - Best practice description of each country.

- Reports on language learning in the country:
- <http://llo.turiba.lv/>
- Materials for language learning/teaching:
 - On-line language learning materials for adults in LV, RU, EN, ES, GE, FR – language and digital skills, focus on blending intercultural texts with comprehension and grammar as well as comprehension and lexical tasks on-line;
 - Untraditional task for every language;
 - Best practice description of Turiba University.

Thank you for you attention!

Ineta@turiba.lv